

Triple Threat Marching Band Purple Passion 2021 Audition Information

Thank you for your interest in joining the Purple Passion Dancers of the Edward Waters College Marching Band. Purple Passion serves as the primary auxiliary unit for the Triple Threat Marching Band. The primary purpose of the team is to entertain and add visual content to the marching band program. The team demonstrates poise, high energy, style, grace, personality, and creativity. Team membership requires extreme time commitment, including daily rehearsals and weekend travel.

We are looking for dancers who will embody the Triple Threat mantra of the Band!

The Sight, The Sound, and The Fury!

If you love to dance, are committed and motivated, and want to be part of a TEAM, Purple Passion is a tremendous opportunity for you to continue with your passion and love of dance in your college years.

Video submissions are currently being accepted. After review, select candidates will be chosen to move to the second phase of the audition process. The 2nd phase will be held on campus..

2021 Auditions

Auditions will be held in two rounds. The first round will be held virtually via video submission. The second round will be held in person on the campus of Edward Waters College.

Round 1 - Video Submissions by Midnight - April 17th.

Round 2 - April 30th & May 1st

Are There Fees?

There is a $20 application fee for all persons selected for round 2 of auditions.

If chosen, there are mandatory fees associated with team participation. If membership is extended to you, all of this will be given in the post audition team meeting. Everyone selected must be ready to make a non-refundable deposit of $100 on May 2nd at the conclusion of auditions.
